

Four Corners River Health Workshop

Collaborating for water quality in the San Juan Basin

Oct 16-17, 2012

Farmington Civic Center

Brought to you by:

San Juan Watershed Group

In collaboration with:

Animas Watershed Partnership
San Juan Soil & Water
Conservation District
New Mexico Environment Dept.

Online Registration at:

<https://sites.google.com/site/sanjuanwatershedgroup>

Call 505-334-3090 x 116

or contact

SanJuanWatershedGroup@gmail.com for more information.

This is a FREE workshop!

Register by October 5th for free lunches!

We are still accepting applications for poster displays and information booths!

Corporations, nonprofits, students, citizens, and others are welcomed to share their knowledge!

Day 1 Workshop

Tuesday, October 16th 9:00 am-5:30 pm

- State of the Waters and Introduction to the watershed
San Juan Watershed Group, Animas Watershed Partnership, Mountain Studies Institute
- San Juan River Conservation Action Plan
The Nature Conservancy
- Tribal Conservation Programs Panel
Southern Ute Indian Tribe, Navajo Nation EPA, Ute Mountain Ute Tribe
- Impacts from Legacy Hardrock Mining
Peter Butler—Animas River Stakeholders Group
- Farming and Grazing BMPs for Water Quality Protection
Ana Gomes—Natural Resources Conservation Service, New Mexico State University Ag Science Center/Extension Service
- Stormwater BMPs for Water Quality Protection
New Mexico Environment Department Stormwater Program, Devil's Spring Ranch/Carrizo Watershed Improvement Project
- Restoration Case Studies and Techniques
Basin Hydrology, Inc., San Juan Watershed Woody Invasives Initiative
- Networking and poster sessions

Day 2 Field Trip

Wednesday, October 17th 9:00 am-5:00 pm

- Tour river restoration sites to see best management practices, including constructed wetlands, sediment basins, and more
- Complete a Rapid Stream Riparian Assessment with Dr. Peter Stacey (UNM) on the Florida River

Optional Mines Tour

Monday, October 15th OR Thursday October 18th

Tour the San Juan and La Plata mines with a representative from BHP Billiton. Learn about active mining operations, as well as reclamation efforts on an inactive coal mining site. Departs at 9am, 6 hour trip. Space is limited, registration is required.