

Adobe Whitewater Club of New Mexico

Summer Paddle Sports Clinic and Picnic

When: Saturday August 16, 9:30AM

Where: Taos Junction Bridge Near Pilar NM in the Orilla Verde Recreation Area

Who: Anyone interested in learning to paddle, be part of a strong, passionate and inclusive community or just looking to improve on personal paddling skill

Cost: AWC Members $30.00, Non-members $45.00 (includes annual AWC Membership)
All ACA members receive a $5.00 discount.

Camping: Free on Friday and Saturday night at the Taos Junction group campsite.

Clinics offered in:

- Beginner , Advance Beginner, Intermediate Whitewater Kayaking- learn to kayak or become a better boater (Advanced class venue is on the race course section of Rio Grande)
- Rafting, learn to paddle raft
- Kids clinic (10 and under). Kids are $5.00 or free if ACA members. Must have a Chaperone ($5 or free if ACA member)

Register by contacting Dallas Hill at jeepster101@comcast.net, The Annual Adobe Club Potluck and Club Meeting will be held on Saturday evening after the clinics conclude. This is a great opportunity to meet Board Members. Please bring something to share.

Information for all interested participants

- 1) You must be an AWC member to participate
- 2) For kayak classes you must bring your own boat, paddle, PFD, skirt, helmet, boat flotation and appropriate clothing
- 3) Bring your own food, water and camping equipment
- 5) All instructors are ACA certified. Please realize that instructors volunteer for this event and put a fair amount of their own time and money into maintaining their ACA certification for the Love of Rivers and Paddling Education.