

THE DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY PRESENTS A PUBLIC LECTURE BY FULBRIGHT SCHOLAR IN RESIDENCE, DR. GERGELY GUSZMANN:

Ghosts from the past,
historical traumas of the present:
Nationalism, Nazism, and the Soviet Union

Dr. Gergely Guszmann is an associate professor of History at the Eszterházy Károly Catholic University in Eger, Hungary. He holds degrees from the Ecole des Hautes Etudes en Sciences Sociales in Paris and the Eötvös Loránd University in Budapest, Hungary. His research focuses on nationalism, multiculturalism, historical representation, social movements, and international relations. This lecture will address how social and political dynamics of the 20th century continue to resonate in the present moment. What lessons have we failed to learn?
